POSTKARTE

Falls of Leny. The Leny is a small river which connects Loch Lubnaig with the River Teith and Loch Vennachar, flowing through the Pass of Leny. In places it makes a charming series of rapids and miniature waterfalls and in others it expands into small lakes, nestling under the mountains, and offering charming specimens of the type which abounds in "the Trossachs." The countryside is associated with Scott's "Lady of the Lake."
